Student Charter

At The Wing Chun Collective (TWCC), we are committed to providing a safe, inclusive, and respectful learning environment for all our students. Our school celebrates diversity and welcomes participants of all genders, ages, and ethnic backgrounds. This Student Charter outlines the rights and responsibilities of students at The Wing Chun Collective.

Rights of Students

Respect and Equality

Every student has the right to be treated with respect, fairness, and equality, regardless of their gender, age, or ethnic background. Discrimination or harassment of any kind will not be tolerated.

Safety

We prioritize the safety and well-being of our students. Measures will be taken to ensure a safe training environment, including the proper use of protective gear, supervised practices, and adherence to health and safety guidelines.

Quality Instruction

The Wing Chun Collective provides high-quality instruction by qualified instructors. Students have the right to receive proper guidance, coaching, and support to develop their martial arts skills.

Inclusive Learning

We believe in an inclusive learning environment where everyone can participate and learn at their own pace. Students have the right to access training and resources that are suitable for their abilities, regardless of their gender, age, or ethnic background.

Privacy and Confidentiality

We respect the privacy and confidentiality of our students. Personal information shared with The Wing Chun Collective will be kept confidential, unless required by law or with the student's consent.

Responsibilities of Students

Respect and Courtesy

Students are expected to treat instructors, fellow students, and staff members with respect and courtesy always. Bullying, discrimination, or any form of disrespectful behaviour will not be tolerated.

Safety

Students must prioritize their own safety and the safety of others. It is important to follow the instructions of instructors, use appropriate protective gear, and engage in safe practices during training sessions.

Active Participation

Students are encouraged to actively participate in classes, demonstrate a willingness to learn, and give their best effort. Regular attendance and punctuality are expected, and any absence should be communicated in advance.

Upholding the Charter

All students are responsible for upholding the principles and values outlined in this Student Charter. They should report any concerns or violations to the appropriate staff members or instructors.

Continuous Improvement

Students should strive for continuous improvement in their martial arts skills, knowledge, and character development. This includes setting personal goals, practicing regularly, and maintaining a positive attitude towards learning.

The Wing Chun Collective

By enrolling in The Wing Chun Collective schools, students agree to abide by this Student Charter and contribute to the creation of a respectful, inclusive, and supportive learning community.

Note: This Student Charter is subject to review and may be updated periodically to better serve the needs of our students and align with our core values.
